

2013 National Community Attitudes towards Violence Against Women Survey

USING ATTITUDES RESEARCH TO STRENGTHEN ADVOCACY AROUND VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

TWO FREE WORKSHOPS

Purpose

This workshop will inform you on the findings of the National Community Attitudes towards Violence Against Women Survey (NCAS) and assist you to use this research in your role in advocacy, media or violence prevention.

Who should attend?

The workshop is relevant to the violence prevention sector and people working in communications for a range of community organisations.

The workshop will also be of interest to those working in health and other sectors who want to learn more about the connection between attitudes and violence prevention.

The workshop will provide an important opportunity for participants to share insight, trade ideas and approaches, and plan your communications activity strategically.

Registrations: email sstribley@vichealth.vic.gov.au and specify which workshop you wish to attend, your contact details and any dietary requirements. Registrations are due: Thursday 30 July

Further information: contact NCAS Senior Project Officer, Stephanie Stribley sstribley@vichealth.vic.gov.au or 9667 1367.
